

NASW Social Blurbs Content

1. Accidental Death & Dismemberment

Are you financially protected if you die or are injured in a covered accident? With the NASW Group Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance Plan you could receive up to $100,000 CASH benefits in the event you may be in an accident. To learn more, please visit:

<http://bit.ly/naswadd>

#ad

Image to use: AD&D

2. Group Term Life

Life is unpredictable, so why not help protect yourself and your loved ones from financial risks? With the NASW Group Term Life Insurance Plan you can receive up to $500,000 in life insurance coverage, your spouse or domestic partner could qualify for their own plan, and living benefits could be paid if you become terminally ill. This plan allows you to take care of your family now, and even after you're gone. To learn more, please visit: <http://bit.ly/naswgtl>

#ad

Image to use: GTL

3. 50-PLUS Term Life

The NASW-endorsed 50-Plus Group Term Life Insurance Plan provides coverage for both you and your spouse/domestic partner to be financially ready for retirement, medical or final expenses. This is an affordable option to make sure your family will be well taken care of. Want to learn more? Please visit: <http://bit.ly/nasw50tl>

#ad

Image to use: 50+ TL

4. Hospital Income Protection

Are you financially prepared in the event you become hospitalized? Copays, deductibles, policy limitations, and exclusions—let alone other factors like travel for family members to see you, and medical supplies—can all add up to extra cash out of your own pocket. The NASW Hospital Income Insurance Plan helps provide additional benefits while you are in the hospital to give you a peace of mind. Take advantage of this plan today by visiting: <http://bit.ly/hipnasw>

#ad

Image to use: HIP

5. Long Term Disability

What would happen if you or your spouse/domestic partner's income stopped due to a disabling injury or sickness? With the NASW Long Term Disability Insurance Plan, you could receive monthly disability benefits to help cover your mortgage, household bills, and the everyday living expenses for you and your family. Secure your benefits today by visiting: <http://bit.ly/naswltd>

#ad

6. Long Term Care (LTCR)

Long-term care costs can add up quickly when it comes to nursing homes and home health care services. With the NASW Long Term Care Insurance Plan you can stay in control of your health care and financial decisions. To learn more, please visit: <http://bit.ly/ltcnasw>

#ad

Image to use: LTC

7. Medicare Supplement

Medicare.com is endorsed by NASW, and is a non-government resource from eHealth that specializes in helping people with Medicare save money on their health insurance. You can find plans from some of the country's highest-rated health insurance companies in as little as 60 seconds. Find a plan today by visiting: <http://bit.ly/medsuppnasw>

#ad

Image to use: Med Supp

8. Emergency Assistance Plus Program® (EA+®)

In today's world, travel involves more financial risks than ever before. It's important to line up the best care in the event that there's a medical emergency while you're traveling away from home. The NASW Emergency Assistance Plus Program® (EA+®) provides you with immediate help – and even money – to get fast assistance and medical attention. From medical evacuation to getting you and your traveling companion back home, EA+ delivers high-value services to protect you. To learn more visit <https://www.naswmemberinsuranceprograms.org/emergency-assistance-plus>.

#ad

Image to use: EA+ Image